INDIAN LAW SOCIETY, PUNE

The Indian Law Society was established in 1923 as a Public Charitable Trust registered under the Societies Registration Act. It is a non-profit organization established with the sole purpose of imparting legal education. The Society is a voluntary association of persons, who came together with a pledge to launch courses on law, formal and informal, where law and legal doctrines are taught with social utility, purpose, impact and social relevance. The founder members of the Indian Law Society were great legal celebrities like Sir Narayanrao Chandavarkar, Shri J. R. Nanasaheb Gharpure, Diwan Bahadur and P. B. Shingane. Indian Law Society established ILS Law College in 1924, with a view to providing facilities for the study of law. Establishment of the Law College by the Indian Law Society was indeed a turning point in Indian Legal Education, particularly in respect to academic excellence, social relevance and professional competence. Imaginative realignment of written law or the hard law with a view to reorient them with the Indian social milieu has always been the strength of the Indian Law Society. The ILS Law College, during its 90 years of existence, has acquired the reputation of being a premier institution imparting brilliant and quality legal education in the country.

ILS LAW COLLEGE, PUNE

Established in 1924, ILS Law College is one of the oldest law schools in the country and has been playing a pioneering role in legal education and scholarship. Since its inception, ILS Law College has produced some of the most highly regarded contributors in the field of law. Three Chief Justices of the Supreme Court, Justice P. B. Gajendragadkar, Justice Y. V. Chandrachud, Justice E. S. Venkataramaiah, Former Governor of Maharashtra K. M. Reddy, Former Defence & Finance Minister and First Chief Minister of Maharashtra Y. B. Chavan, Former Minister of Commerce Mohan Dharia, Former Chief Ministers of Maharashtra, Sushil Kumar Shinde and Vilasrao Deshmukh, all received legal education from ILS Law College. Completing 90 years of its existence, ILS Law College, with its illustrious history and heritage, has contributed immensely to the growth of legal profession and has upheld its tradition of producing meritorious legal scholars who dedicate themselves to public service and reform. The generations of distinguished legal luminaries who have been nurtured by this unique institution have made a seminal contribution globally to evolution of the legal fraternity. ILS Law College has been accredited with A+ by NAAC.

REMEMBERING S. P. SATHE NATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION

Dr. Satyaranjan Purushottam Sathe was a distinguished legal luminary and a renowned academic in the judicial universe of India. He held various positions in Universities and Law Institutes of repute. Professor S.P. Sathe had a long association with the Indian Law Society. He was the Principal of ILS Law College from 1976 to 1991. He was also the Secretary of the Indian Law Society until 2002. He was the Founder Director of the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies. He was also the President of the Maharashtra People's Union for Civil Liberties, and a Vice-President of the National PUCL. Professor S. P. Sathe has been an authority on Constitutional Law, within the country and abroad. He contributed extensively to the field of legal education. His recent work on 'Judicial Activism is appreciated worldwide. More than 100 articles written by him were published in national and international legal periodicals, magazines and journals. Books to his credit are, 'Administrative Law', 'Judicial Activism in India: Transgressing Borders and Enforcing Limits', and 'Right to Know'. He also wrote in Marathi. He contributed to the Marathi Vishwa Kosh published by the Government of Maharashtra. He was invited to deliver lectures, and to participate in seminars as a resource person to different law universities, institutions within and outside India. Known for his humility, Professor Sathe endeared himself to his colleagues and students alike. His commitment to Rights and Liberties of the people was deep and abiding.

Every year, Professor S. P. Sathe Foundation, set up by the Indian Law Society, organizes three events at ILS Law College, Pune on a specific theme with a view to commemorate his contribution to Indian Jurisprudence and Social Action and to encourage academic pursuit of law students. The three events are: a Memorial Lecture, a Conference, and a Moot Court Competition. The academic year 2016-17 will see the ILS holding the Remembering S. P. Sathe 11th National Moot Court Competition.

THE 11th REMEMBERING S. P. SATHE NATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION 2016-17 | THEME

The theme for this year's memorial Sathe event is:

“Changing contours in Intellectual Property law”

The Remembering S. P. Sathe National Moot Court Competition is being organized to introduce participants to the practical aspects of Intellectual Property Law. Intellectual Property Law (IP) refers to creations of the intellect for which a monopoly is assigned to designated owner by law. Intellectual property rights (IPRs) are the protections granted to the creators of IP. Intellectual Property law has evolved for centuries and by late 20th century, it became common place in majority of the world.

Through this moot we aim to equip the students in the handling of a case on Intellectual Property Law and to enable them to understand and exude the work done by the two of the essential IP rights i.e. copyrights and trademarks issues in Intellectual Property Law.

COMPETITION CASE

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

This moot proposition for the Professor S. P. Sathe 11th National Moot Court Competition has been drafted by Ritvik M. Kulkarni and Yojit Pareek (V BSL LLB), ILS Law College, Pune. This problem is further reviewed and edited by:

1. Professor Dr. Shamnad Basheer, Founder, SpicyIP; and
2. Deepakar Livingston, Advocate, Bombay High Court, Mumbai.

Jack Samuelson and Brightwalker Studios Ltd.

Versus

Earl Grey and Edified Comics Ltd.

- I. After nearly two decades of literary excellence, Jack Samuelson emerged as the most celebrated author for his unparalleled work in fantasy fiction. Samuelson's gold rush began the day he conceived "Ballad of Malice and Power". This literary masterpiece comprised an entire fantasy land of kings, dragons and mystical creatures intertwined in a complex and addictive political drama and quest for ultimate power. Samuelson decided to publish the Ballad of Malice and Power in a series of seven books.

- II. The first book titled "A Flagon of Dreams", was released in 1994 and received a tremendous response from the youth. Subsequently, he released each book at irregular intervals, with the last book being released in 2014. Printed and digitized versions of each were available for sale in the US, members of the European Union, Canada, China and the Indian Sub-Continent.

- III. Soon enough, television networks began prowling around Samuelson to secure exclusive rights in the Ballad of Malice and Power. Brightwalker Studios Ltd. (BSL), a US based network and production company, successfully closed a deal with Jack Samuelson in 2005 and acquired an exclusive license to adapt the 'Ballad of Malice and Power' into a full-fledged television show called "Valar Dobaeris: The Beginning" (the Show). BSL released the first of the seven seasons of the show in 2009. The show was an instant hit and soon became the most watched show in television history.

IV. The Show was available on TV channels in the US. However, it was available for viewership in India exclusively through a paid online portal named ZoomIn; which was accessible through its online portal and mobile application. Each episode of the Show released at the same time on ZoomIn as it did on American TV Channels.

V. Ms. Earl Grey grew up reading Samuelson and is a huge fan of the Ballad of Malice and Power. In particular, she is fascinated and intrigued by one of the characters from the Book Series: 'Boromir Bohemia'. Boromir finds little mention in the book series and is not alive in the ongoing storyline in the books or the TV series. However, other characters make references to Boromir and his feats of the past. Legend (in the Series) goes that Boromir was the greatest conqueror in the land of Vengursa, the last man to ride (fly) a full-grown dragon and most importantly played a pivotal role in shaping what is the present political landscape in the Ballad of Malice and Power.

VI. However, Ms. Grey was disappointed with the fact that neither the Book Series nor the Show ever shed much light upon on Boromir's character. She believed that she could develop Boromir's character much further. With enthusiastic spirit and the stroke of a talented artist, Ms. Grey breathed life and soul into Boromir's character. She sketched him a face and body, installed a mind and granted him his very own storyline.

VII. Ms. Grey started out her twist on Boromir Bohemia standing on Samuelson's shoulders. She collated all the scattered bits and pieces on Boromir's story from the seven books and defined him as the protagonist in her version of the conquests Boromir had in the land of Vengursa. She then employed her own imagination to create a plotline, new characters and a new world altogether all in intricate detail. She calls her version of Boromir's conquests as "The Bohemian Rhapsody".

VIII. She expresses her interpretation of the newly developed Boromir Bohemia in a comic strip format on her own blog called The Pickwick Papers. At that stage, neither Samuelson, nor BSL pursue any action against Grey's fan-fiction.

IX. Gradually, Grey's version of Boromir's conquests i.e., 'Bohemian Rhapsody' became widely popular and garnered massive response from readers across the world. The Pickwick Papers even broke the 10,000 rank barrier in the Alexa global website ranking system. She developed her own fan-base and began to receive daily requests for continued publication of the Bohemian Rhapsody. Owing to highly frequent viewership, Grey also hosts advertisements on The Pickwick Papers and raked in decent amount of revenue from advertisers.

X. Edified Comics Ltd. (ECL), a behemoth in commercial comic book publication and a company registered and based out of Mumbai (India), sighted a more lucrative and larger opportunity in Grey's work. In late 2014, ECL approached Ms. Grey and secures an all-encompassing IP-assignment in The Bohemian Rhapsody in exchange for a hefty sum of royalty. Ms. Grey is also promised that she will retain creative control over the story, subject to a basic review from ECL's own creative team. ECL then initiates the production process and aims to distribute the new comic series online and through print across the globe by mid-2016.

XI. But before entering the comic book market, ECL wanted to monetize the prevailing popularity of Boromir Bohemia from Grey's comics. In order to generate hype among the public for the Comic Book release of The Bohemian Rhapsody, ECL started to manufacture and sell various merchandise of Bohemian Rhapsody in India. These products include apparel, costumes, accessories, artwork, wallpapers, stationery and other consumer products. Accordingly on 4th January 2015, ECL also obtained in India trademark registration in the word 'BOROMIR' and in a pictorial representation of Boromir Bohemia from the comic book. Released in February 2015, each of these products features a distinct image of ECL's logo and the pictorial representation of Boromir, which was registered as a trademark, on their label and price tag.

XII. In the meanwhile, a year after the publication of Samuelson's last book in the Ballad of Malice and Power, BSL released the last episode of the Show in 2015, concluding its monumental run on the small screen. In fact, the last episode garnered around 20 million views on the release date itself. Throughout the Series, Boromir finds few mentions and is never visually represented on the show. Nevertheless, he still maintains a pivotal position in the overall plotline.

XIII. Since the inception of the Show, BSL was in no terms oblivious to Boromir's potential to be depicted as an independent character armed with his own storyline. Accordingly, after the Series ended in February 2015, BSL produced and developed a spin-off series (a prelude to the show) called "Boromir the Conqueror" based on the life and conquests of Boromir Bohemia. BSL also commenced marketing and released a teaser-trailer in June 2015. The show was globally released on 9th February 2016.

XIV. ECL released "The Bohemian Rhapsody" (the Comic) in the ongoing and hugely popular ComiCraze event in Mumbai on 16th August 2016. Online access to the Comic was priced at a modest Rs. 30 and the printed version was available for sale at Rs. 59. It received an overwhelming global response. Analysts predicted that “Bohemian Rhapsody was highly likely to beat all previous records for best-selling comic series.”

XV. Highly aggrieved, Samuelson and BSL initiated appropriate legal proceedings against Earl Grey and ECL before the Bombay High Court for misappropriating their character Boromir Bohemia.

XVI. ECL denies this claim and inter alia retorts with counterclaims against BSL for unlawful use of its trademark on the Boromir the Conqueror.

XVII. The matter is listed for hearing on 24th and 25th of September 2016. Counsels are required to argue on behalf of the Plaintiff/Defendants.
