

Action Taken Report 2012-13

At ILS we believe that imparting legal education is not just an academic activity, but it is a noble cause. Every activity planned and implemented at the ILS is done to fulfill and get closer to its mission statement.

The institution strives to impart professionally desired and socially relevant legal education. A well-planned curriculum and its effective implementation is necessary to cater to the needs of the students. A systematic feedback from the stakeholders of legal education is an effective tool to upgrade and update the curriculum and the practices of implementing the curriculum.

The feedbacks are collected and analysed. The planning and implementation, of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, is done keeping in mind the feedbacks and the insights shared. The feedbacks are discussed with the faculty and administrative staff to keep them abreast of relevant inputs and techniques for improvement.

Suggestion	Action taken 2012-13
The college to establish Student Welfare Department as per University norms for the benefit of students and to implements various schemes.	The college established the Student Welfare Department. Mr. D P Kendre was appointed as a Coordinator for the student Welfare Department. 'K B P Earn and Learn' scheme was implemented under the Department.
Competition law is emerging as an important area. It not being a subject covered by the syllabus diploma /certificate course should be introduced to create an opportunity for the students learn the subject.	As a partial implementation of the suggestion a national seminar on competition law was organized. During the seminar orders passed by Competition Commission of India were discussed, case study on Cartelization in India was presented.
Library has to procure books on legislative drafting	Considering the suggestion, the library purchased the books on the subjects recommended.
Considering the widening scope of IP law and its interactions with other disciplines of law and non-law subjects books dealing with interdisciplinary approach to IP Laws to be purchased by the library	Interpretation of statute as a subject would be studied effectively if the process of law making and legislative drafting is studied too. The library purchased books on legislative drafting.
The teachers feedback on syllabus and curriculum show that mere syllabus teaching is not sufficient to bridge the gap between	To strengthen the effort of imparting more practical knowledge Contract drafting competition was organized. The participants were given the case outline at the time of competition and were expected to draft a contract with reference to the case outline. To promote student participation and to give them practical orientation of the professional skills and academic knowledge.	subjects students teacher seminars were organized on the following themes <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Statutes of incorporation</li><li>2. Rule against perpetuities</li><li>3. Commutation of death sentences</li><li>4. Should prostitution be legalized?</li><li>5. Copy Right Amendment 2012</li><li>6. Specific Enforcement of contracts</li><li>7. Law of Torts</li><li>8. Labour and Environmental Law</li><li>9. WIPO</li><li>10. Ombudsman and Lok pal- Jan Lokpal Bill</li><li>11. Silent Valley Project and Screening of documentary on ' Jaitapur'</li><li>12. Credit Creations and Modern Services of Commercial Banks Etc.</li></ol> Students studied the assigned topic and made a presentation on the topics under the guidance of faculty.

--	--

Vaijayanti Joshi

Principal

PRINCIPAL
ILS Law College, Pune.

Secretary Indian Law
Society

Action Taken Report 2013-14

At ILS we believe that imparting legal education is not just an academic activity, but it is a noble cause. Every activity planned and implemented at the ILS is done to fulfill and get closer to its mission statement.

The institution strives to impart professionally desired and socially relevant legal education. A well-planned curricular and its effective implementation is necessary in catering to the needs of the students. A systematic feedback from the stakeholders of legal education is an effective tool to upgrade and update the curriculum and the practices of implementing the curriculum.

The feedbacks are collected and analysed. The planning and implementation, of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, is done keeping in mind the feedbacks and the insights shared. The feedbacks are discussed with the faculty and administrative staff to keep them abreast of relevant inputs and techniques for improvement.

Suggestion	Action taken 2013-14
Students participation in research projects is important for their development and learning. Students to be encouraged to participate in research activities.	Research projects on socio legal issues were undertaken this year. The students were involved and given opportunity to work under the guidance of faculty. The research projects were on the topics of 1. 'Validity of Oral Talak', 2. 'Mental Disorder' as ground for matrimonial remedy, 3. 'critical analysis, appreciation and recognition of Right of sex workers in Pune in order to ensure their Human Rights in present Legal Framework'.
Students feedback show that they desire for more practical orientation of the subject.	To make the learning experiential and practical apart from the other student centric activities, student teacher seminar was organized on the theme of 'education and copy right law'. The exceptions provided under the Copy Right Act 1957 for the benefit of education were discussed. Students participated and presented the papers during the seminar.
To give exposure to students of Masters in Labour Law & Labour Welfare, they may be allowed to participate in the competitions held at the college which	The students of Masters in Labour Law & Labour Welfare were allowed to participate in the 6 th Judgement Writing Competition held memory of Judge P N Behere. The problem for the competition involved the proceedings are relevant to their syllabus or course.	before a Labour Court. This unique competition gave a chance to students and participants to hear arguments of the Advocates on the problem of Labour law.

Election Laws are not taught as a separate subject neither any specialize course or program is available for the same. The legal issues involved in the process of election and its importance in democratic set up is not discussed. A seminars or conference on election laws to be organized to sensitize students on election laws and to discuss contemporary issues.	Two-day national seminar on 'Political and Judicial Perspective on Electoral Reforms in India' was organized on 6 th and 7 th September. The themes for the seminar were 1) Political and judicial perspective on electoral reforms in India, 2) Perspective of political parties on Electoral Reforms in India, 3) Judicial Perspective on Electoral Reforms in India.
To establish equal opportunities cum enabling cell for the promotion and inclusion of students with disabilities in the main stream.	The college inaugurated the equal opportunity/ Enabling Cell for students with disability. The cell works to disseminate knowledge about the rights of persons with disability. The cell also organized various activities. 'Star amongst differently abled' was one of such activities.
Library to look for latest books and to buy more books 1)disability rights 2) International Economic Law	The library added to the its collection of books on the subjects suggested.
To purchase books for LLM on 1) Constitutional law, 2) jurisprudence 3)criminal law

vj
Vaijayanti Joshi

Principal

Secretary Indian Law
Society

PRINCIPAL
ILS Law College, Pune.

Action Taken Report 2014-15

At ILS we believe that imparting legal education is not just an academic activity, but it is a noble cause. Every activity planned and implemented at the ILS is done to fulfill and get closer to its mission statement.

The institution strives to impart professionally desired and socially relevant legal education. A well-planned curricular and its effective implementation is necessary in catering to the needs of the students. A systematic feedback from the stakeholders of legal education is an effective tool to upgrade and update the curriculum and the practices of implementing the curriculum.

The feedbacks are collected and analysed. The planning and implementation, of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, is done keeping in mind the feedbacks and the insights shared. The feedbacks are discussed with the faculty and administrative staff to keep them abreast of relevant inputs and techniques for improvement.

Suggestion	Action taken 2014-15
Faculty suggested to subscribe to Hein online.	The college subscribed to Hein online to promote and help students and teachers to do effective research. Hein Online is online research database with more than 100 million pages available in an online fully-searchable, image-based format.
The student's participation is increasing in various activities in and outside the college. It is necessary to extend library timings.	Since long time there is a demand to make the library accessible for a longer period, the library timings are extended upto 9 PM. The students may access library from 9.30 am to 9 pm.
Practice oriented activities specially to motivate students of 3-year law course to be organized to increase their participation.	An activity-based certificate course was designed especially for the students of 3-year law course separately. The course 'Law Buzz' was designed with set of tasks and activities to be done by the students.
To hold a separate course or lecture series on competition law.	A dedicated Diploma in competition law was offered with a view to provide knowledge about competition law. The course was designed with the help of Shri. Naval Chopra, Partner, Amarchand and Mangaldas, Suresh A Shroff & co.
Steps to be taken to encourage more	With a view to widen the scope of legal aid activity and also number of student to participate in legal aid research and legal aid activity.

encourage legal aid research this year Two-day international conference on 'Equitable access to justice: Legal Aid and Empowerment' was organized. Students participated in the seminar.

Also faculty from various institutions and abroad participated and presented papers in the conference.

Vaijayanti Joshi

Principal

PRINCIPAL
ILS Law College, Pune.

Secretary Indian Law
Society

Action Taken Report 2015-16

At ILS we believe that imparting legal education is not just an academic activity, but it is a noble cause. Every activity planned and implemented at the ILS is done to fulfill and get closer to its mission statement.

The institution strives to impart professionally desired and socially relevant legal education. A well-planned curricular and its effective implementation is necessary in catering to the needs of the students. A systematic feedback from the stakeholders of legal education is an effective tool to upgrade and update the curriculum and the practices of implementing the curriculum.

The feedbacks are collected and analysed. The planning and implementation, of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, is done keeping in mind the feedbacks and the insights shared. The feedbacks are discussed with the faculty and administrative staff to keep them abreast of relevant inputs and techniques for improvement.

Suggestion	Action taken 2015-16
Additional subject are introduced under the credit based assessment system for LL.M. To impart relevant and practical knowledge it is recommended to organize guest lectures for LL.M. students.	LL.M. department invited experts from the respective fields to deliver lectures and have interactions with the students of Post Graduate department. Lectures by Justice Zakeria Mohd. Yacoob, Judge Constitutional Court of South Africa were organized. He spoke on Limitation of law in bringing Social Transformation, Values of African Constitution, Constitutional Challenges, Internal law and African Constitution. The Department this year organized 15 guests lectures on various topics.
For effective use of online data bases and journals that the college has subscribed to a training should be conducted. This would aid to understand and explained the knowledge of the subject to make both teaching and studying relevant	The college organized a training session on usage of SCC Online. The participants were given training for effective usage of the data base. The session included training on various methods of searching case laws/ judgments.

Projectors are to be installed in hall no 6 & 7	Considering the demand from the faculty, projectors are installed in Hall no 6 and 7.
It is desirable to promote the research in constitutional law by starting innovative competitions in constitutional law.	The 1 st Constitutional Law Olympiad was conducted. The competition aimed at promoting constitutional studies through innovative mean, capacity building to evolve multi-dimensional law professionals, nourishing constitutional culture. The competition was conducted at intra college level.
Measures should be taken to create awareness regarding prevention from sexual harassment at work place and other gender related issues	Two days para legal training program was organized in collaboration with Bahujan Hitaya Pune project. Dr. Tejaswini Malegaonkar spoke on sexual Harassment.  To create awareness regarding gender related issues various activities were conducted. 8 legal aid and literacy camps were organized to sensitize and spread awareness regarding gender related issues including Domestic violence, sex determination and female feticide, sexual abuse, arrest of women etc. Guest lectures on gender issues were organized.  The activities in form of lecture series and analysis of judgment from gender perspective were undertaken.
Participation of LL.M students in legal aid activities should be encouraged	Two legal aid and literacy camps were organized specially for LL. M students. The students presented skits and speeches on issues of child marriage, domestic, rights of rape victims, public nuisance and education policy etc.
To conduct IP week as activity based instead of lecture-based activity	Considering the response received, this year IP Week was made activity based and not lecture based sessions. As a part of the week activities like Parliamentary Debate, IP Quiz, Extempore Moot court, Sessions on patent drafting and a seminar on current issues in IPR etc. were conducted.
West Law database should be made available for teachers and students	An addition was made to the list of legal data bases. It provides quick, easy access to West's vast collection of statutes, case law materials, public records, and other legal resources, Journals and law reviews published from all around the world. Westlaw Collection includes 1600+ Academic Journals; Legislation of Australia, Canada, European Union; United Kingdom & United States of America.

Since the new Companies Act 2013 has come additional books containing commentary on companies Act 2013 should be purchased by the library.	The library purchased the updated books on Companies Act 2013 as suggested.
Should update the library by purchasing books of comparative constitutional law & disability rights.	The library updated its collection of books by purchasing the books on recommended subjects.

Vaijayanti Joshi

Principal

Secretary Indian Law
Society

PRINCIPAL
ILS Law College, Pune.

Action Taken Report 2016-17

At ILS we believe that imparting legal education is not just an academic activity, but it is a noble cause. Every activity planned and implemented at the ILS is done to fulfill and get closer to its mission statement.

The institution strives to impart professionally desired and socially relevant legal education. A well-planned curricular and its effective implementation is necessary in catering to the needs of the students. A systematic feedback from the stakeholders of legal education is an effective tool to upgrade and update the curriculum and the practices of implementing the curriculum.

The feedbacks are collected and analysed. The planning and implementation, of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, is done keeping in mind the feedbacks and the insights shared. The feedbacks are discussed with the faculty and administrative staff to keep them abreast of relevant inputs and techniques for improvement.

Suggestion	Action taken 2016-17
Library to procure additional amended text book & reference books in lieu of amendment to Arbitration	The books were to the collection of library on Arbitration Law considering the suggestion.
Considering the success of the earlier competitions the activity like Constitutional Law Olympiad needs to escalate to National Level	The college organized the First National Constitutional Law Olympiad at National Level. 180 students from all over India participated. The competition was organized by ILS Law College in Alliance with Maharashtra Knowledge Corporation Limited MKCL. The competition had 4 rounds. The first two rounds were conducted online, and the students could participate from their respective home towns. That made the competition accessible to participants from every corner of India.
The post graduate department to organize more activities for creating opportunities for students to participate	3 student teacher seminars were conducted on the themes of Understanding Principles of Repeal of a Statute, Judicial Law making in Women's issues, Recent Trends in Banking.  This year to encourage more student participation a new competition was introduced 'Book Chapter Appreciation

	Competition'.
As the college now has a Ph.D. research centre library must procure books on Research Methodology and Legal Research to strengthen Ph.D. program.	The library purchased the books on the subject recommended.
Formal training in techniques of teaching law is to be provided by the college.	A training program was organized. The theme of the training program was the "Techniques of Teaching Law Effectively." Professor Dr. S. Shantha Kumar Dean, School of Law, G.D. Goenka University spoke to teachers about skills, techniques and changing trends in law teaching. Members of faculty from ILS Law college and other Law Colleges had participated in this one-day program.
Training program on use of data bases to be organized.	Training session for SCC Online was organized.

 Vaijayanti Joshi
 Principal PRINCIPAL
 ILS Law College, Pune.
 Secretary Indian Law
 Society

Action Taken Report 2017-18

At ILS we believe that imparting legal education is not just an academic activity, but it is a noble cause. Every activity planned and implemented at the ILS is done to fulfill and get closer to its mission statement.

The institution strives to impart professionally desired and socially relevant legal education. A well-planned curricular and its effective implementation is necessary in catering to the needs of the students. A systematic feedback from the stakeholders of legal education is an effective tool to upgrade and update the curriculum and the practices of implementing the curriculum.

The feedbacks are collected and analysed. The planning and implementation, of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, is done keeping in mind the feedbacks and the insights shared. The feedbacks are discussed with the faculty and administrative staff to keep them abreast of relevant inputs and techniques for improvement.

Suggestion	Action taken Report 2017-18
The existing supplementary programs offered are relevant and receiving good response from the students. The same are to be continued.	Students are important stake holders of legal education. The feedback from the students shows that the supplementary programs offered are well received and helping the students bridge the gap between theory and practice. This year also the programs are conducted with utmost efficiency. Diploma in Human Right and Laws, Diploma in Corporate Laws were continued this year.
The students feedback show the demand for practice oriented programs.	Though the college does not have any role in planning or framing of the curriculum, but at the same time to cater to the needs of the students. This year following new programs are offered additionally: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Certificate Course on Company Law</li> <li>2. Certificate Course in Intellectual Property Rights Laws</li> <li>3. Certificate Course on Goods and Service Tax</li> <li>4. Certificate Program on What, How and Why of learning</li> </ol>

	the Law. This program was specially designed for the students of first year to give them exposure to interdisciplinary study of law.
Introduction of New programs focusing on various practical aspects. The programs to impart and discuss those aspects of the subjects which are not possible to dealt with in regular classes.	In the light of the amendments to Code of Civil Procedure and introduction of Commercial Courts Act, the Advanced Certificate program on Civil Court Practice and Procedure was introduced. The program aimed at learning the Civil Procedure Code and its interaction with other substantive and procedural law like law of Arbitration, Small Causes Court Act etc. Similarly, a Certificate Program on Criminal Law Practice and Procedure was introduced to give insight to the niceties of the criminal law and procedure.
A study of legal history and language and literature would nurture the minds of students make them a better professional. To encourage the students to take an interest in legal, political, social, religious, cultural history of India and make study of history inclusive &amp; holistic some activities need to be planned.	To develop the interest of the students in the subject of legal history and to make its study more interesting and relevant this year ILS History Club is established. The History club aims at learning the history in the most unique way. To encourage students to read good literature that would help them gain command over language the ILS Literary Club is established. Both clubs run student focused activities.
Encourage student's participation in the legal aid activity	Participation in legal aid activity was encouraged through organization of various literacy camps and participation in Lok Adalat organized by DALSA Pune
Faculty and Student's research proposal to be invited for promotion of research. Additional research facilities to be provided to the students in the college.	Students participation in the research activities was encouraged by providing financial/ library/ administrative assistance. Students were involved in the research activities under the guidance of the faculty members. College provided financial assistance to the selected research proposals.
Encourage active participation of the students in seminars and other	Following conferences and seminars were organized during the academic year 2017- 18 to encourage students to participate and

activities.	study regarding the current legal issues. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Colloquium 3.0 On Contemporary Issues In Corporate And Competition Law</li> <li>2. One Day National Conference On “Changing Dimensions In Media Laws”</li> <li>3. National Seminar On Gender Issues In Contemporary India</li> <li>4. One Day National Conference On ‘Critical Reflections On Disability Sensitive Legal Order – Indian Scenario</li> </ol>
To purchase additional books of social Sciences & English subjects.	The library purchased the additional books on social sciences and English.
Awareness about counselling services made available for students in the college to be increased	In addition to counselling and other student’s support services Mentors for each division of 1 st year of Five and Three-Year Law Course and LL.M. students were assigned. Regular interactions with the students were planned.

 Vaijayanti Joshi
 Principal PRINCIPAL
 ILS Law College, Pune.
 Secretary Indian Law
 Society

