

December 6, 2021

ILS Law College
Abhivyakti Law Journal 2021-2022

Open to all the students of ILS Law College from LL.B.; B.A.LL. B, and LL.M.

Call for Student Editors

Dear students,

If you are interested to be a part of the Student Editorial Board of the ILS Abhivyakti Law Journal 2020-21, then join for an interview on 10th December 2021 (Friday) between 12:30 pm to 1.30 pm on the following link: <https://meet.google.com/ihr-gryj-mca>

Interested students should send in soft copy of: 1) CV (highlight previous experience with authoring or editing or publishing), 2) Statement of Purpose (SOP) of maximum 500 words and 3) a sample of publication, if any, by the candidate by 6.00 pm on 9th December, 2021 to banu.vasudevan@ilslaw.in

The candidate must be fluent with formatting, proof-reading and must have a hold on at least 2 law subjects. The candidate should be willing to work throughout the editorial process, which may extend up to the Preparatory leave.

It is suggested that candidates may read last year's publication of Abhivyakti Law Journal 2019-2020 to be conversant with the required editorial work. [click below link to access Abhivyakti Law Journal from ILS Website - <https://ilslaw.edu/abhivyakti-law-journal/>]

Faculty Editor-in-charge,

Dr. Banu Vasudevan.

Assistant Professor,

ILS Law College, Pune.