Date: December 2, 2022

Mode: Online

Name of the Resource Person: Adv. Thulasi K. Raj

No. of Participants: 75

Report of the Session: A session titled 'Gender Equality and Legal Profession' was organized to commemorate Advocates' Day. The session was centered around a lecture delivered by Adv. Thulasi Raj, aiming to raise awareness about the gender inequalities prevalent in the legal profession and explore the challenges and opportunities faced by women within this field.

She started by discussing the sex ratio in ILS Law College, emphasizing how it has evolved over the years. She also addressed the disparity between the number of women graduating from law schools and the number of women practicing as advocates. She explored the reasons why many women drop out of the profession at an early stage and the challenges faced by women in the legal profession, including the limited opportunities available due to the attached stigma of women being perceived as the weaker groups. At the end of session, the speaker shared her personal experience as an advocate representing the appellant in the hijab case, offering insights into her journey and the challenges faced. The session concluded with an interactive question-answer session.

➤ Lecture II

Resource Person: Ms. Devika Singh (Advocate)

Date: February 28, 2023

Mode: Online

Report of the Session: The session aimed at addressing gender discrimination in the workplace. Gender discrimination refers to unfair treatment or bias towards an individual based on their gender. While Constitutional protections exist to prevent such discrimination, there are still gaps and challenges in enforcing these laws. These gaps can include insufficient remedies, lack of awareness among employers and employees, and biases in the legal system. It is essential to address these gaps to ensure a fair and inclusive workplace for all individuals.
