

ILSCA's Mediator Training Program:

Indian Law Society's Centre for Arbitration and Mediation (ILSCA)'s 40-hours Mediator Training Programme has now been recognised by the prestigious International Mediation Institute, Netherlands (IMI) as a Certified Mediator Training Programme (CMTP) to deliver training in-person and online.

ILSCA hereby presents its second endeavour to train the participants as per the IMI Certified Mediation Training Program (CMTP). The maiden attempt was in 2023 and was a great success. Out of the 18 successful candidates, seven of the participants opted to register with IMI as Qualified Mediators upon payment of their registration fee. The seven of the are seen on the IMI website.

This program helps the participants to become a Qualified Mediator (IMI) and sets the participant to become a Certified Mediator on completion of certain minimum standards. Accreditation by the IMI will help participants to get worldwide global recognition and get exposure in the field of mediation, globally

This specially designed course is taught by the most experienced experts and pioneers in the mediation field.

This highly interactive program integrates presentations, commentary, and virtual mediation observation, in which participants observe a full-day mediation.

History of ILSCA:

The ILSCA was established on December 3rd, 2016, by the Governing Council of the Indian Law Society (ILS). It was established with various objectives in mind.

One purpose was to provide facilities to the disputant parties to resolve disputes on the premises, which is designed with the essential environment for the parties to move ahead. The Centre has state-of-the-art infrastructure and facilities for holding ad hoc Arbitration and ad hoc Mediation. ILSCA has framed its own rules to facilitate disputant parties to resolve their disputes in accordance with the rules for conducting institutional arbitration and institutional mediation, both in domestic and international commercial situations.

One of the primary objectives of establishing this Centre is to provide comprehensive training in Arbitration and Mediation to law students, legal professionals, and other interested individuals. With this objective in mind, ILSCA offers extensive training on various aspects of ADR.
