

HISTORY CLUB

(Year of Inception -December 2017)

Introduction: The main objective of the ILS History Club is to encourage the students to take a pride in our great legacy, be it the political history or the constitutional history or the legal history of India and to connect and correlate the interdependence of Law with History and thereby to make the study of law and the legal institutions more interesting.

Faculty Coordinator: Dr. Banu Vasudevan

Student Coordinators: Advait Khare, Mr. Suraj Sontakke, Tejas Kasar and Som Dhirwani (III BA LLB)

Competitions conducted:

Title of the Competition: Essay Competition on “Law and History as gleaned in the Historical Places in my Place.”

Date: September 30, 2022

Mode: Offline

Judged by: Dr. Banu Vasudevan

Nos. of Participants: 14

Winners: Dakshayani Donthu (III BA LLB)

Report of the Session: The objective of this competition was to make the students aware of the historical background of their hometowns as well as the laws applicable to them e.g., The Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, No. 24 of 1958, The Antiquities and Art Treasures Act, 1972, The Environment Protection Act, 1986, etc.

Details of Collaboration/ sponsorship: Late Mrs. Nilakshi Jatar Endowment Prize

Title of the Activity: ILS History Club “Fourth Annual Intra College Debate Competition”

Date: October 13, 2022

Mode: Offline

Judges: Advait Khare, Chinmay Kshirsagar, Gopi Krishna Chittela (III BA LLB)

No. of Participants: 38

Winners: Kunal Behal and Aaryaman Upasani (III BA LLB)

1st Runner up: Parth Paliwal (III BA LLB)

Report of the Session: The debate focused on the current burning topics like ‘Isn't Seditious, a colonial practice in modern times?’, ‘Should death Penalty be acceptable In the Modern World?’, ‘Why is Supreme Court hesitant in legalizing same sex marriage?’ The participants put forth logical and interesting arguments in support of their stance!

Details of Collaboration/ sponsorship: Late Mrs. Nilakshi Jatar Endowment Prize