

CENTRE FOR PUBLIC LAW
ILS LAW COLLEGE

DO YOU FIND THE INDIAN CONSTITUTION FASCINATING?
DO YOU QUOTE FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AT EVERY CHANCE?
DO YOU WISH TO EXPLORE THE VARIED FACETS OF OUR CONSTITUTION?

If yes, then read on....

WE PRESENT

EQUIPPED TO DECRYPT: CONSTITUTIONAL CONUNDRUM

A CASE STUDY BASED INTRA -COLLEGE COMPETITION.

DAY/DATE: WEDNESDAY, 13TH MAY 2020

TIME: 3 PM TO 5 PM

ELIGIBILITY: Any 3 or 5 year student of ILS Law College with a keen interest in Constitutional Law.

This Competition is a unique chance to study Constitution in action: An opportunity to decrypt political and rhetorical encryption in the Constitution.

Contestants are expected to be constitutionally agile and solve the case study in real time through Google Classroom.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Individual Contestants only.
- Registration for first 25 students through Google form.
- Google Forms to be released at 8 pm, Wednesday, 6th May 2020 through ILS Law College Website; "Centre for Public Law" Facebook page and batch/class Whatsapp Groups.
- Please provide your college provided email id for registration.
- Registration closes at 8 pm, Sunday, 10th May 2020.
- Results shall be declared within three-four days after the Competition.

Further details will be released soon...

For more information, contact:

Nihar Chitre: 09757135410

Ashok Pandey: 09820110097

Anshika Sharma:09969994959

Or write to us on centreforpubliclaw@gmail.com