Life is a better experience with a touch of legality. Since you've decided to pursue a career in legal studies, I welcome you to the fraternity of people for whom life is law.

What should be the essential requirements for a person to be a good lawyer-discipline to follow the law, restraint and courage to speak the truth. Compounded with this, a lawyer must also realize his commitment to the society - justice, equity and good conscience must rule his philosophy of law.

Only a good legal education, one that allows you to understand the framing of laws and also their correct implementation can promote such qualities. ILS Law College provides you with all this and more. ILS has always been instrumental in producing lawyers par excellence and has been at the forefront of education, research and innovations in the field of law.

It is due to the pure dedication and sincerity of its flag bearers, that ILS is, where it is today. I consider myself fortunate to have been a student and the Principal of this college - a part of its 80 year old glorious tradition.

Why ILS

ILS Law College is a community of students and staff dedicated to bringing out the best in all of its members. Our aim is to provide the finest opportunities and environment for teaching, learning and research. We have a long and distinguished record of academic excellence and innovation since the foundation of the college in 1924. The basic principle behind the foundation of ILS Law College was to establish a regularized system of imparting legal education. From 1924 to 2021 for over 98 years, we have endeavoured and achieved this ambition and maintained our standards of excellence. Ranked amongst the top Law Colleges in the country, we believe in creating a relaxed and flexible environment to allow students to grow and develop at their own pace. The courses offered here are a product of critical thought and careful experiment over many productive years. We offer an education characterized by a mixture of theory and practice and a commitment to public service. This college has always been a firm believer in innovation, both in pedagogy and curriculum. In tune with the recent globalization of the profession, a new experiment in learning and teaching of law was proposed to the Ford Foundation at New Delhi for funds under their programme 'Rights & Social Justice' and was implemented. Striving further to harbour individuality of thought and expression and the stimulation to reach the acme of the legal profession, this college organizes a multitude of workshops, conferences and lectures. It has always been the foremost aim of this college to insist on giving students the independence to use the abounding opportunities available and carve out their own niche in college life.

At this college, we give special emphasis on perspectives and insights from other disciplines and encourage an integrated approach to law and an exploration of the legal profession's socio-economic role and ethical commitments.

Five Reasons to Choose Pune - the City & University

If you are looking for complete education - look no further. Students from all over the country and abroad are flocking to Pune, as apart from the academic infrastructure, the culture and ethos of the city too seems to have won the hearts of many a student.

RECOGNITION

Savitribai Phule Pune University is ranked among the top five in the country. Almost 30% of foreign students in India are at Pune. The University has over 40 engineering and management institutes. Pune is also the fastest growing centre for studies in IT. Called the 'Oxford of the East', the city has an enormous student population and a number of renowned institutions including the National Defence Academy, Film and Television Institute of India, Fergusson College, Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics and ILS Law College.

ACCESSIBILITY

Pune is an easily accessible city benefiting from excellent road, rail and air communications. It is well connected to all important cities by direct train services and also has a domestic airport.

AFFORDABLE LIVING

Pune has the charm of the small city with facilities expected from a bustling metro. Perfect for students, as almost everything is available at an affordable price - from eating joints to internet cafes. Residential accommodation is easily available and is very economical. The city benefits from an efficient public transport system and general cost of transportation is relatively low. Pune is one of the most preferred destinations for students in India, from South East Asia and Africa. It has a cosmopolitan population imparting it the character of a world city. With the same facilities one would expect from a busy metro, Pune retains the coziness of a small town. It is a very safe place to stay in, the low crime rates being a proof of that. The denizens of this city are helpful by nature, and to settle down in this place does not take much effort.

CULTURAL CAPITAL

Pune is the cultural capital of Maharashtra. Whatever be your area of interest - Pune's got a lot to offer. Be it theatre or films, dance or music, debating or elocution, yoga or sports - Pune is always abuzz with encouraging and entertaining activities. Associations like the SPIC-MACAY, AIESEC, Lalit Kala Academy, give students ample opportunities to hone their talents.

ENVIRONMENT

Pune is nature lover's paradise. Within a radius of 5 km from the heart of the city, you have numerous places to visit including the Sinhagad fort, the NDA, the Khadakwasla dam and the natural wonders like the Pashan lake and the hills surrounding the city add to its beauty. Pune has a salubrious climate conducive to work.

Our Roots

The Indian Law Society's Law College dates back as far as the year 1902, when Mr. J.R. Gharpure and Mr. P.B. Singhe decided to make a new beginning in the direction of a regularized system of imparting legal education. 'The New Law Class, Bombay' was therefore started in 1903. After running this class for five years, it was thought desirable to start a regular law college, which would be affiliated to a university. Accordingly, the Fergusson College Law Class was started in 1908, and was conducted by Mr. Gharpure. More than 125 students were registered on roll. However within a few weeks, this institution was disaffiliated from the University of Bombay. After a period of more than fifteen years the above experiment was still under trial. The scope for improvement was recognised and on 4th March, 1923, a new society called the 'Indian Law Society' was inaugurated, whose first President was Dr. Sir Narayan Rao C. Chandawarkar. It was proposed at this meeting that a private law college be set up in Pune. After preliminary preparations, the Law college formally commenced operation on the 20th of June 1924, under the banner of the Indian Law Society. It was then known as the 'Poona Law College'. The Society acquired 200 acres of land and the first building called the Saraswati Building was built in 1935. The foundation stone was laid down at the hands of the Late Honourable Srinivas Shastri on 7th January 1935.

The Saraswati building was thoughtfully architected to look like a sage meditating in the 'lotus' position. Subsequently the hostel for resident students, a Gymkhana and a pavilion were also built. The construction of a swimming pool further enriched the facilities. The Laxmi building was later added to meet the growing needs of the College. All this was done under the auspices of the first principal of the college, Nana Saheb Gharpure - a man of great vision & foresight.
