

ILS LITERARY CLUB (estb. 2018)

(A) Brief Introduction of the Club:

The Club was founded with the objective to unite fellow literature enthusiasts and further intellectual discussions and debates involving all forms of literature and engage the students in understanding how literature plays a crucial role in law-making and is fundamental in understanding the society while framing the legislations.

(B) Faculty In-Charge : Mr. Ashish Pawar and Ms. Pronema Bagchi

(C) Student members : Antara Bhide, Neha Dhavalikar, Nirali Hamirwasia, Yamini Jain, Sneha Kulkarni, Sanskriti Mahale, Bhoomi Sandesara (III B.A. LL.B.)

(D) Details of the activities conducted by the Club during Academic year 2019-20 :

Sr. No	Title of the Activity	Name of Resource Persons	Brief overview of the activity	Date of the activity
1.	Guest Session: Law in Literature: Trials and Mistrials	Prof. Prashant Sinha (Former HOD of English, SPPU)	The session explored various trials in popular literary masterpieces to understand how the characters in the same perceived law and its enforcement as a socio-political concept in different eras and its interpretation by the society therein.	13 th January 2020
2.	Books for Mind-Mental Health and Wellness Month	Social Media Activity	The activity was inspired by the mental health issues due to the COVID-19 pandemic. It includes daily book recommendations by literature enthusiasts that are helping them through the pandemic and promoting a healthy discussion about mental health and wellbeing.	May 2020.